Quintessential Lake Life' with a splash of cozy comfort - 54 Blue Heron Bay, a waterfront oasis at Lake Newell Resort in Southern Alberta! Welcoming you with an enchanting stone fireplace and impressive log mantle, vaulted wood lined ceilings and complimentary beams, it's easy to be drawn into the wonder of the bright heart of this home. Even better, to the wall of glass windows that look out over the main attraction - the crisp blue waters of the lake in the summer and the bright white icy wonder in the winter months. Both lending an array of activities that are sure to add pages upon pages to your family photo albums. The kitchen features an eat up bar and leads out to the screened in deck. Bright, large windows allow natural light to soak every feature of the kitchen, dining area and living room, all while enjoying the magical views from above. With 2 bedrooms and the main bathroom on the upper floor, and another bedroom and bathroom downstairs, this home would make the perfect downsize, first time home, revenue property or a secondary home, strictly for slow Saturdays and memory making. Enjoy the walk out basement with the extra large family room and plenty of extra storage. With a secondary entry, easily stroll down to the lake or utilize this door for guests or as a mortgage helper. This home has many features that must be seen in person including a detached heated garage and air conditioning! The Lake Newell Resort community offers acres of green grass, parks and playgrounds, tennis courts and of course, the beaches and water! It's easy to see how life at the lake could be pretty easy to get used to! Lake Newell is a Southern Alberta destination!
