Step inside to find a bright and inviting interior, filled with natural light thanks to large windows throughout. The living and dining area is open and cheerful, while the white kitchen feels fresh and welcoming, featuring a window over the sink with a lovely view of the south-facing backyard. The remainder of the main floor features a comfortable layout with the primary bedroom, a second well-sized bedroom, and the main bathroom. Each room offers ample natural light and a cozy, functional space — ideal for everyday living or guests. The main bath is conveniently located and easily accessible from both bedrooms, completing this practical and inviting floor plan. The basement offers additional living space with a spacious family room, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. Outside, the mature yard is beautifully landscaped with well-established trees and shrubs that offer both privacy and curb appeal. The south-facing backyard is perfect for relaxing in the sun or entertaining, and includes a garden shed along with alley access parking for up to 3 vehicles — plus a single detached garage, for a total of 4 parking spots. Recent updates and ongoing maintenance add peace of mind: the hot water tank was replaced 4 years ago, carpet updated 5 years ago but still looks brand new, and both shingles and all windows have been replaced within the past 12 years (with the exclusion of the laundry room window). The front door was replaced 10 years ago, and while the furnace was upgraded 12 years ago, a brand new motor was installed in 2025 to ensure efficient performance. Fun fact, this home holds a piece of the past — the original milk door has been preserved, offering a charming nod to the home's history. Keep an eye out for this unique and nostalgic detail during your tour! Whether you're a first-time buyer, looking to downsize, or seeking a solid investment in a desirable neighborhood, this home is an excellent opportunity.
