Escape to your own wooded paradise with this one-of-a-kind acreage located just 5 minutes from Hardisty, Alberta. Spanning 5.12 acres across two lots, this property offers a peaceful retreat surrounded by mature trees and shrubs, complete with mowed walking paths for you to explore. The cozy one-bedroom, one-bathroom cabin features a welcoming rustic charm and a wood-burning stove, perfect for chilly evenings. Recent updates include power pulled in within the last year, ensuring modern convenience while maintaining that back-to-nature feel. Outside, you'll find a huge deck that's ideal for relaxing and soaking up the tranquil setting. This property also comes equipped with a drilled well, an RV hookup, and even includes an RV trailer for guests. The entire acreage is fenced and offers year-round access, making it an excellent choice for a weekend getaway or a full-time residence. Nature lovers will appreciate the location—just a short three-minute walk to Fish Lake and only steps from the local golf course. Hardisty Lake is also nearby, adding even more opportunities for outdoor fun. All of this is only a three-hour drive from Calgary, making it an easy escape from the city. Where else can you find over five acres of treed land with a cabin for under $200,000? With great neighbors, unbeatable privacy, and so much potential, this is the perfect spot to relax, recharge, and enjoy everything Central Alberta has to offer.
