Welcome to your new home in the Marquis section of Mahogany! This South Backyard lane home sits just one lot away from the corner—giving you the convenience and open feel of a corner lot without the added upkeep. Right across from a beautiful park and with a sunny south backyard, it’s perfectly positioned for everyday living. You’ll also love the quick access in and out of the community from 52nd Street SE. Upgrades include durable composite siding, a welcoming front porch, and a cozy main floor fireplace that makes the living space feel warm and inviting. The backyard is fully landscaped with attractive limestone and features a double detached garage, offering plenty of space for parking and storage. And, brand new carpets and interior paint. Inside, the main floor has a bright open layout with a modern kitchen, stainless steel appliances, and lots of natural light. Upstairs are three comfortable bedrooms, including a primary suite with a private ensuite. Plus, living in Mahogany means walking paths, playgrounds, wetlands, and full lake access with beaches, swimming, skating, and year-round activities right at your doorstep. Plus, schools are within close walking distance, making it easy for families with children. A fantastic choice for first-time buyers, young families, upsizing, downsizing or anyone looking to enjoy the best of lake community living.
