Welcome to 212 Engineer Avenue located in the Manufactured Housing Community of STATION GROUNDS in Coaldale. This 20 foot wide Triple M Housing home built in 2018 offers you 1520 square feet of comfort and care-free living. From the spacious open concept living room and kitchen/dining area with kitchen island to the primary bedroom with large walk-in closet with 5 piece ensuite, I’m sure you will be impressed. There’s a separate laundry/furnace room and lots of closet and pantry space. At the other end of the home are located two bedrooms, one of which could be a dandy bright office or craft room, and another 4 piece bathroom. Several appliances are included in the price as well as the gazebo (with tarp) and 10ft x 8ft shed. The parking pad will accommodate two vehicles. Pets are welcome (with restrictions as to type and size). Also, the potential buyer (no age restriction) must be pre-approved by park management located in the park. Interested? Why wait!
