If privacy, peace, and quiet matter, this corner unit stands apart. Tucked into one of the most secluded locations within the Savana complex, this beautifully positioned home offers a rare sense of calm and privacy that's hard to find. Filled with natural light, this two-bedroom, two-bathroom condo features an open-concept layout with granite countertops and a welcoming corner stone-faced gas fireplace that anchors the living space. Large windows frame serene views, while the private balcony provides a quiet outdoor retreat where you may even spot local wildlife passing through. A true standout feature, the unit includes three titled parking stalls — two in the heated underground parkade and one surface stall — offering exceptional convenience and value. Located in one of Strathmore's most sought-after condo communities, Savana is known for its peaceful setting, thoughtful design, and quality of living. A rare opportunity to own a private, corner unit in a complex residents are proud to call home.
