Beautiful Executive Corner Unit in the Heart of Downtown Welcome to Hangingstone Landing, a prestigious downtown residence offering an exceptional executive-style second-floor corner unit with enhanced privacy and a desirable south-facing balcony. This well-appointed 811 sq. ft. open-concept condominium features two bedrooms and two bathrooms, thoughtfully designed to maximize comfort and functionality. The bright, modern kitchen is equipped with laminate flooring, crisp white cabinetry, granite countertops, and a convenient eat-up breakfast bar, complemented by ample cabinet and counter space. The home also features stainless steel appliances, including a refrigerator, stove, microwave, washer, and dryer, along with a stylish grey subway tile backsplash. Both bedrooms are generously sized and offer plush carpet flooring and large windows that allow for abundant natural light. The primary suite includes a walk-through closet and a four-piece ensuite bathroom with a tub/shower combination. The secondary bedroom is directly connected to an additional three-piece bathroom, which also features a secondary entrance from the main living area&mdash;providing added convenience for guests or family. The main living area is highlighted by laminate flooring, central air conditioning, and expansive windows, with direct access to a balcony, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Additional features include one titled underground parking stall. Residents of The Hangingstone Landing enjoy access to premium amenities, including a fully equipped fitness room. Condo fees conveniently cover water, heat, garbage, exterior insurance, and reserve fund contributions. This exceptional corner unit offers refined urban living in a highly desirable downtown location.
