Arguably one of the best locations on the mountain, this true ski-in/ski-out cabin lets you drive right up to the back door and ski straight out the front. Warm, inviting, and thoughtfully updated, this home away from home features high-end finishes in both the kitchen and ensuite, blending mountain charm with modern comfort. A real wood-burning fireplace on the main level creates the perfect gathering space after a day on the slopes, while stunning mountain views from both the front and back provide a breathtaking backdrop year-round—watch the lifts start turning as you enjoy breakfast at the kitchen table. The second level offers two generous bedrooms, a four-piece bathroom, and abundant storage, ideal for family living. The main floor includes the open living and dining area, an additional bedroom, storage room, and a three-piece bathroom. Downstairs, the fully developed basement adds a fourth bedroom, family room, and a spacious boot room designed to accommodate the entire family's ski gear and motorized toys. Come experience Castle Mountain Resort living at its finest—this is mountain life done right.
