Whether you are a family searching for a FOREVER HOME, a renovator ready for your next project, or a builder/developer looking for prime land in an unbeatable location, this property offers unlimited potential. The home sides onto a side lane—meaning you only have ONE neighbour—and a portion of that side lane may be purchased from the City of Calgary to further widen the lot (call for details). The house itself is extremely well built with excellent bones and can easily be transformed into a stunning residence with thoughtful renovations. Move in and enjoy it as-is for years, rent it out as a holding property, renovate to your taste, or redevelop entirely—the options here are wide open.
