A rare opportunity to own a beautifully maintained acreage offering privacy, space, and a lifestyle that's hard to replicate. Set on rolling land with wide-open views, this property delivers the kind of peace and quiet buyers are searching for — with wildlife, mature trees, and natural surroundings creating a true escape from town. The home offers a functional and comfortable layout, with a size that feels just right — providing space to live and entertain without unnecessary upkeep. Recent updates include a newly completed basement (2025) and a boiler replaced just a few years ago, giving buyers confidence in the care and condition of the property. Step outside and the experience continues. An expansive deck captures the views in every direction, while the land behind the home has been thoughtfully enjoyed — featuring a private toboggan and ski hill, along with walking trails winding through the treed area. Whether you're raising a family, hosting friends, or simply looking for a place to slow down and enjoy your surroundings, this property offers a lifestyle that extends far beyond the home itself. Acreages like this — with this combination of setting, usability, and care — don't come up often. Check out the 3D virtual tour!
