Visit REALTOR® website for additional information. Refined Bungalow Living in the Heart of Cougar Creek Perfectly positioned on the sought-after sunny side of Cougar Creek, this beautifully maintained bungalow offers the rare comfort of true single-level living in a quiet, established neighborhood. Thoughtfully cared for and professionally maintained throughout the years, this home is impeccably kept and completely move-in ready. Spanning over 1,295 square feet on the main level, the home welcomes you with an impressive sense of space and light. The expansive living room is a true centerpiece, featuring large windows that frame unobstructed mountain views, creating a stunning natural backdrop for everyday living and entertaining alike. The well-designed main floor offers three spacious bedrooms, one ensuite and another 4 piece bathroom, providing both comfort and functionality. The layout flows effortlessly, delivering the ease and convenience that only a bungalow can offer. A double attached garage with direct interior access adds everyday practicality, while the full undeveloped basement — already roughed-in — presents exceptional future potential, allowing the next owner to design additional living space tailored to their lifestyle. Step outside to a fully fenced backyard oasis, offering privacy, sunshine, and ample space for relaxing, gardening, or hosting summer gatherings. Set in a quiet, highly desirable location, this property combines mountain views, generous space, meticulous upkeep, and the increasingly rare bungalow layout. Homes like this do not come to market often — a refined opportunity to enjoy comfortable living today with exciting potential for tomorrow.
