Vaulted ceilings and expansive windows fill the open-concept living space with natural light, creating a bright and inviting atmosphere. A sleek electric fireplace adds warmth and modern elegance, while the seamless layout connects the kitchen, dining, and living areas for both everyday comfort and entertaining. The gourmet kitchen features a statement island with breakfast bar seating, quartz countertops with full-height backsplash, crisp white cabinetry with soft-close doors, a walk-in pantry, and a premium LG stainless steel appliance package. Thoughtful upgrades include Hunter Douglas custom shutters, zebra shades, triple-pane windows, and a built-in humidifier system for year-round comfort and efficiency. The primary suite offers a peaceful retreat with a spa-inspired ensuite and custom California Closet. A second bedroom provides flexibility for guests, a home office, or creative space. A second full bathroom, main-floor laundry, and a well-appointed mudroom enhance daily convenience. The extra-tall double attached insulated garage offers excellent storage and functionality through all seasons. The lower level is ready for future development, featuring large windows and rough-in plumbing, ideal for a recreation room, gym, or additional bedrooms. Outdoor living is equally impressive with a southeast-facing rear deck complete with BBQ hookup and a west-facing front composite porch—perfect for morning coffee or evening sunsets. The fully landscaped yard with new trees and a private pathway enhances both privacy and curb appeal. Ideally located near walking trails, the Sheep River, local cafés, amenities, and the Turner Valley Golf Club, this home offers a peaceful, nature-connected lifestyle with easy access to Calgary, Bragg Creek, and Kananaskis. A rare opportunity to own a nearly new, move-in-ready bungalow in one of Diamond Valley's most desirable communities.
