Welcome to this well cared for home in Normandeau, offering a great opportunity for first-time buyers or investors looking for space, updates, and a large lot in a mature neighbourhood. Located close to schools, shopping, and with easy access to 67th Avenue, this home offers everyday convenience in a well established area. The main floor offers an updated kitchen with bamboo block countertops, newer appliances, and refreshed cabinetry, along with updated vinyl plank flooring and a renovated bathroom. A bright living area and spacious primary bedroom complete a comfortable, functional layout. The partially finished basement adds valuable living space with a second family area and two additional bedrooms, providing flexibility for family, guests, or potential rental use. Situated on a nearly 9,000 square foot lot, the outdoor space includes a private garden and a double detached garage, along with a rear parking pad with room for up to four additional vehicles. With key updates already completed, air conditioning and plenty of space inside and out, this home comes pre-inspected and is ready for its next chapter.
