Thinking of building a home in the Rocky Mountains? This lot is located in the sought after and newest developed area of Grande Cache known as "phase 6". This area of town offers easy access to the trail systems both for hiking and for your toys. There is a nice park at the end of the street and this area also offers newly paved walking trails that connect this area to the rest of the community. For building restrictions, lot restrictions, and specifications please inquire directly with the MD of Greenview.
